Eligibility Criteria

Nationality

Doctoral candidates funded by Doctoral Networks can be of any nationality

Doctoral candidates

Supported researchers must not be already in possession of a doctoral degree at the date of the recruitment* and must hold an academic degree that enables them to undertake doctoral studies. Researchers who have successfully defended their doctoral thesis but who have not yet formally been awarded the doctoral degree will not be considered eligible.

Mobility Rule

Researchers must not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies, etc.) in the country of the recruiting beneficiary for more than 12 months in the 36 months immediately before their date of recruitment*.

Compulsory national service, short stays such as holidays, and time spent as part of a procedure for obtaining refugee status under the Geneva Convention are not taken into account. For international European research organizations, international organizations, or entities created under Union law, recruited researchers must not have spent more than 12 months in the 36 months immediately before their date of recruitment in the same appointing organization.
